

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS

Big Masonic Bazaar Will Be Opened Tomorrow Night.

SALOON MEN TO CLOSE OUT

Special Correspondence of The Star.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., October 7.—With an address by James Abbot Cabell, grand master of Masons of Virginia, Richmond, the big Masonic bazaar, under the auspices of the local committee of arrangements for the George Washington Masonic memorial, will be opened at 8 o'clock Monday night and be continued each night, ending October 21.

Grand Master Cabell will push an electric button which will flash on hundreds of tiny incandescent lights which will reveal a veritable fairland of beauty.

The finishing touches on the interior of the big hall are now rapidly nearing completion. Practically all that remains in order to complete the work is the placing of the various articles in position on the different booths, and this will be done Monday by a committee of women who will look after this end of the work.

Attending on the opening night will be the members of the blue lodges of Masons, and also the members of Washington Centennial Lodge will come over on a special train.

In addition, representatives from the lodges of this city, Washington and other points are expected to be present on the opening night.

Represent Nationalities.

There are ten booths, representing various nationalities, installed in the hall, and on the west wall is a painting of George Washington, with Mount Vernon on one side and the United States Capitol on the other, beneath which is inscribed "Our First Master."

The ceiling of the hall is decorated with streamers representing every color of the rainbow, and in the center are the state colors.

The Eastern Star booth, located at the east end of the big hall, is gayly bedecked with streamers of every color of the rainbow. The work of preparing the hall has been under the direction of J. Edward Shinn and Frank W. Latham.

A flower booth will be at the entrance of the hall, and the automobile booth will be in the center, and the orchestra will be screened directly behind the automobile booth. There will be dancing each night.

Those in Charge of Booths.

The various booths and those in charge will be as follows: Alexandria—Washington Lodge, Miss Cochran and Miss Walker, kitchen; Andrew Jackson Lodge, Miss Luckett, fancy articles; Old Dominion Commandery, Mrs. C. W. Fletcher, the Edison photograph; Mystic Shrine, Mrs. E. H. Kemper, smoking; Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. F. W. Latham, refreshments; Mount Vernon Chapter, Mrs. George W. Zachary and Mrs. R. A. Zachary, groceries; Dodge Bros' automobile, Mrs. George H. Schwarzmann; flowers, Mrs. J. E. W. Timberman and Miss Callahan.

It is announced that Friday night will be "Lucy night" at the bazaar and all persons having "booster" buttons will be admitted free of charge.

Among the presents donated for the bazaar is a handsome silver loving cup by Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway Company, to be voted the most popular railroad man. It will be exhibited at the Shriners' booth in charge of Mrs. E. H. Kemper.

Saloon Men to Close Out.

With but twenty more days in which to do business, the saloon men of the city are preparing to say "good-bye" to the "booze" business, for on November 1, Virginia will do "dry."

There are thirty-nine licensed places in this city, wholesale, retail and a brewery. Already a majority of those engaged in the liquor traffic have arranged for other lines of business.

Signs are displayed by some of the saloon men informing their customers that they had better put in their supplies, including those for Christmas, at the present time, as the state law allows only a quarter to be brought into the state at a time.

W. C. Hudson, who for more than two years past has been superintendent of the Washington division of the Southern Railway Company, with offices in this city, has been transferred to the position of superintendent of the Asheville division.

Mr. Hudson will be succeeded here by G. H. Buddin, trainmaster. The change became effective at midnight tonight.

Evans Funeral Probably Monday.

The body of James Percy Evans, well known horseman, who died this morning in a New York hospital as a result of injuries sustained last Saturday by being thrown from a horse he was riding, will be brought here tomorrow and taken to the residence of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sidney Douglas, 913 Cameron street, and prepared for burial.

While the funeral arrangements have not been definitely decided upon, it is expected they will be held at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon from the Douglas residence.

The deceased married Miss Lucy Dickson Douglas of this city September 13, 1908. Besides his wife he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Katharine Evans of Warrenton, Va.; a brother, Leo Evans, Warrenton, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Holliday of Bayside, La.

Mr. Evans was well known here, where he was a frequent visitor.

Funeral services for George H. Hepburn, who died last night, will be held at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon at his late residence, 403 South Fairfax street, and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Plan for Holy Name Parade.

Final plans for taking part in the Holy Name parade which will be held in Baltimore Sunday afternoon, October 15, will be mapped out by the local branch of that organization at a meeting which will be held tomorrow night at 7 o'clock in the Young Men's Sociality, Lyceum Hall. It is expected that several hundred members from this city will attend, in addition to several hundred other persons not identified with the organization.

Representative C. C. Carlin will Wednesday night address the democratic voters of the city at a mass meeting which will be held at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the Elks' Home.

At this meeting it is proposed to organize a Wilson-Marshall and Carlin Club. Officers will be chosen and plans mapped out for bringing out the democratic vote on election day.

The Holy Name band of this city will go to Washington at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and take part in the procession of the rosary at 3 o'clock in which 120 children will participate at the Holy Rosary Church. Following the procession there will be benediction in the church.

Will Attend Smith Meetings.

Several hundred Alexandrians have planned to attend the Gypsy Smith, Jr., evangelistic services in Charlottesville, Va., at an early date. The date shortly will be announced by those engaged in getting up the trip. A special train will be engaged to take the Alexandrians to and from Charlottesville. These services are to be opened tomorrow and continued for several weeks.

The Alexandria Gun Club has completed arrangements for its annual fall tournament, which will be held October 21. There will be four events and the winner of the greatest number of prizes will be awarded the silver loving cup now held by G. B. Willis. The tournament will be held at Mr. Willis' place.

The dance given tonight by the ladies of the Old Dominion Boat Club at the clubhouse on the river front was largely patronized.

A number of matters of importance are slated to be considered by the city council at its meeting Tuesday night.

MR. WILSON ASSAILS
OLD GUARD'S GRASP
ON G. O. P. POLICIES

such a reversal of policy, they may expect war in their own ranks. Those who have been the vocalists in the forces which have so long rendered the life of republicans almost impossible would certainly begin a new insurrection. There would be new raids upon republican majorities such as their victories and defeats seem constantly exposed to, and it would be impossible not to bring about such a breach as would lead to utter confusion in the councils of the nation, because there are other elements in that party which are looking exactly in the opposite direction, whose sympathies and interestinations are in the sharpest contrast with those that I have mentioned.

"Old Guard in Control."

"And then back of all, quiet, self-contained, but being the same better than anybody else, sit the men who really have the organization and control of the republican party in their own possession—the old guard—the men who at any rate afford us the advantage of controversy. We know where to find them. They are always in the same place. They always have the same thing. They always have the same thing as about to say, 'Ideals, but I will not misuse a handsome word—the same conception of what politics is for, and who know, to make a well known quotation, 'exactly what they want.'"

"These gentlemen were in control of the last republican convention at Chicago. These gentlemen made all the choices that were made by that convention. They wrote all that the convention put forth by way of commendation itself to the confidence of the people."

"Amidst the confusions of counsel they will be the only ones who can act on and the only ones who will know how to carry it through. So that the choice enables us to eliminate the active and vocal parts of this party and realize that we are in contrast with the silent and secret parts of this party. We know that these gentlemen; we know that they intend nothing but control to their own advantage and that the people of the United States, when they intervene in their affairs, are regarded as guilty of impertinence."

"When we take each other into partnership there will be no more war between labor and capital. And the act of co-partnership must be written with the heart, not with the brain. They must be written because we mean it, not because we think it is expedient. They must be written because America, founded in that day of vision, depends for her growth and her glory upon the realization of that vision of the rights of mankind. We were born not to pile up material wealth, but to see that the spirits of mankind did not lose heart. We were born to prefer justice to power, humanity to any form of selfish achievement. We raised up, as we have raised up in effigy in the harbor of New York, an image of Liberty, colonizing the world, showing a path of luminous light across the waters, which we said if men would follow, it would lead them to a land of justice, to a land of brotherly love, to a land where men co-operated because they believed in each other's rights; to a land where no man sought to be another man's master, but where all men were united together in like charity, brotherhood and affection."

"These are the ideals of America, and these are the ideals which will settle the election of 1916."

LIEUT. J. S. KENNEDY DIES.

Was Officer in Army Medical Reserve Corps.

Lieut. James S. Kennedy of the Medical Reserve Corps of the United States Army died at the Walter Reed Army General Hospital yesterday. Funeral services and interment are to take place in Chambersburg, Pa., probably tomorrow.

Lieut. Kennedy, who was born in Chambersburg, October 27, 1856, was appointed to the service after having received his honorable discharge with the rank of captain in the volunteer services. He was commissioned a first lieutenant July 7, 1907.

"Men Deprived of Their Credit."

"I am not speaking by way of general conjecture. I have seen men raised in this state of New Jersey, deprived of their livelihood by being deprived of their credit. When they had perfectly good assets, when they had as much right to live and to trade as any man, they suddenly found that their notes would not be renewed, and when they applied at other banks from those in which they had formerly dealt, they found that they would not take their notes."

"So it seems to me that the independent voter has a perfectly plain proposition before him. Does he want to discontinue the liberal and peaceful policies of the present administration and substitute in their stead the probably hostile, the probably warlike and the inevitably reactionary policies of the opposition? A great deal of intensity has been expended in obscuring the issues of the campaign. It is a matter of congratulation to me that there are so many independent voters in the United States. I am a democrat with a little 'd' and a big 'D,' and I am a progressive with all my heart with all my mind, but I don't care in the least for any party that does not lend itself to the actual progress of the nation. I want to participate in extensive democratic party re-elected upon the standpoint when it turns away from these purposes and objects."

Clash of Labor and Capital.

"And one of the things that threatens us in the future, if the republican party is successful, is a conflict between capital and labor, not because any new lines will be drawn, but because so far so many representatives of capital have refused to regard the laborer as a fellow human being, just as much interested in the welfare of business and the progress of society as those who organize business and conduct it."

"Hospital Outfit Ordered Home.

After a week or two spent here this organization probably will go to Douglas, Ark., where the Field Hospital and Battery B, Field Artillery, have just established a new camp. The Field Hospital unit, however, is under orders to start home and is making preparations for the departure.

Troop A is at San Antonio, establishing its new camp, and is making active preparations for a long ride with green horses and three days of target practice.

Battery A arrived at its destination, El Paso, yesterday, and is unloading its trains and getting settled down in the new camp.

FAST TRAIN SCHEDULE FOR INFANTRY SPECIAL

Special Dispatch to The Star.

EARLE, Ark., aboard third section 3d Infantry special, en route Fort Sam Houston, Texas, October 7.—After numerous delays this section of the 3d Infantry special, bearing a part of the regiment from Fort Myer, Va., to Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas, is making regular passenger train schedule in an effort to close up the five-hour gap between it and the second section.

The men are having the time of their lives, and their comrades on the other sections, they were given a royal treat at Memphis, Tenn., and at Central City, Ky., where many of the pretty girls of the town came down and talked to the boys while the train stopped for water. Many of the troops expressed the belief that Central City would be a nice place in which to spend a summer vacation after they get out of the federal service.

The Signal Corps Company has devoted practically all of the week to traveling over the dusty border roads from its old camp at Bisbee, Ariz., to a point in the vicinity of Nogales, Ariz., where it is to participate in extensive maneuvers with regular troops and other militia units.

Yesterday afternoon it reached Elgin, Ariz., after covering one of the hardest legs of the march. Today it is scheduled to leave for old Fort Crittenden, where the organization will receive final instructions as to the part it is to take in the maneuvers.
